

FUN TRIVIA

for little (and BIG) kids!

Since 1981, more than 8,000 young Canadians have worked for the BEAVERTAILS operations in the Nation's capital alone.

BEAVERTAILS uses 21.1 tons of chocolate spread per year: equivalent to the weight of 5 elephants and 12 squirrels.

Since BeaverTails' debut in 1978, enough BEAVERTAILS pastry have been sold to make a straight line of 100 pastries, end-to-end, from our store on the boardwalk in Cavendish, Prince Edward Island, to the two BEAVERTAILS stores at the Whistler Resort in British-Columbia.

In 1995,  skated down the Rideau Canal and stopped for a BEAVERTAILS pastry while her husband, then President Bill Clinton, was on official business in .

PASTRY · SINCE 1978

The musical band  Barenaked Ladies love  so much that they changed the lyrics of their hit “If I Had A Million

The biggest  pastry ever cooked was a whopping  er treat: it was prepared in celebration of the brand’s  presence at Ottawa’s  Winterlude in 2006.

To date, there have been 26  written in  drizzle on .

Canadian singer and song writer  Bryan Adams said during an interview with the  newspaper that his most Canadian trait is his ability to differentiate a  from another Canadian delicacy, the Tim Hortons chain Timbits bite-sized donut holes.